

The Pinkusowicz (there are many different spellings) family from Szmul Leib (Yehuda) Pinkusowicz and Etta Balbierski. They had 6 children who survived to adulthood. It seems that there were at least two daughters who died young. There is also a Feiga Zelda Pinkusowicz born 1877. Nothing else is known about her. And a Chana born 1894 who died in 1906. In the Stanislawow register Pinkusowicz children with the names of Abraham (Abe), Jankel (Jacob), and Malka are all listed as having been born in 1887. and Ruchla (Rochel) in 1889. These dates are "dates of registration". Some of what is below "may not be exact". Thanks to Howard Glad and Sophia Lazebnik.

- 3. Malka. b. 1884. Her husband (name unknown) was a tailor. She had a daughter named Bella born in either 1912 or 1911. Sabine and Paul visited Bella in Paris in 1976. At that time she, together with her daughter Rachel, had a shoe store specializing in fancy shoes and boots and also owned part of another store in Marseilles. They had spent the 4 war years in Grenoble, where Bella's husband was killed as a hostage, 3 days before Grenoble's liberation.
- 4. Rochel Elboim. b. 1889. Had four sons. Lived in the other half of the house in Stanislawow to my grandparents. She, her husband and two of her four sons were killed in the Holocaust. (Could not find in Yad VeShem database.) One son Israel (Srul) settled in Israel after the war. Lived in Tel-Aviv Yaffe. Was a tailor. Had stepson and daughter or stepdaughter (??) Shoshana. Other surviving son Shlome moved to Russia. Fate unknown.
- 5. Shia [Yehoshua Itzhak] (Zaide) May 1, 1891 - June 9, 1953, married

Sara Feige Warshaw in 1915. Seven surviving children. This is my Pinkus family in Montreal, see Pinkus family list.

(Ruth emigrated with her mother to Montreal from Warsaw on Oct. 2, 1925.
They arrived in Quebec on the S. S. Aurania that sailed from Liverpool. They then moved to New York on Nov. 1, 1928. In Montreal they possibly/probably stayed with Moishe and Sonia Warshaw.
The two Moishe's were first cousins. If anyone knows dates, please amend.)
